PROXY STATEMENT
For the Annual Meeting of Stockholders
To Be Held January 14, 2003

General

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of CMGI, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), for use at the Company's 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Meeting"), which will be held at The Andover Country Club, 60 Canterbury Street, Andover, Massachusetts 01810, on Tuesday, January 14, 2003, at 9:00 a.m. local time, and at any adjournments thereof. The Notice of Annual Meeting, this Proxy Statement, the accompanying proxy card and the Company's Annual Report to Stockholders for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2002 are being mailed to stockholders on or about November [], 2002. The Company's principal executive offices are located at 100 Brickstone Square, Andover, Massachusetts 01810 and its telephone number is (978) 684-3600.

All share numbers and share prices provided in this Proxy Statement have been adjusted to reflect all stock splits effected prior to the date hereof.

Solicitation

The cost of soliciting proxies, including expenses in connection with preparing and mailing this Proxy Statement, will be borne by the Company. The Company may engage a paid proxy solicitor to assist in the solicitation. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to brokerage houses, nominees, fiduciaries and custodians to forward to beneficial owners of Common Stock held in their names. In addition, the Company will reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of stock for their reasonable expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. In addition to the original solicitation of proxies by mail, the Company's directors, officers and other employees may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies by telephone, facsimile, electronic communication and personal interviews.

Record Date, Outstanding Shares and Voting Rights

The Board of Directors has fixed Tuesday, November 19, 2002 as the record date for determining holders of the Company's Common Stock, $.01 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), who are entitled to vote at the Meeting. As of November 19, 2002, the Company had approximately [] shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to be voted. Each share of Common Stock entitles the record holder to one vote on each matter to be voted upon at the Meeting. A majority of the shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the Meeting will constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Votes withheld, abstentions and broker non-votes shall be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting is required for the election of directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock is required to authorize the Board of Directors, in its discretion, should it deem it to be appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, to amend the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended (the "Certificate of Incorporation"), to effect the reverse stock split of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present or represented by proxy and voting on the matter is required to ratify the appointment of the Company's independent auditors.

Shares which abstain from voting on a particular matter and shares held in "street name" by brokers or nominees who indicate on their proxies that they do not have discretionary authority to vote such shares as to a particular matter ("broker non-votes") will not be counted as votes in favor of such matter, and will also not be counted as votes cast or shares voting on such matter. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the voting for the election of directors, which requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast or shares voting on the matter, or on the voting to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP ("KPMG") as the Company's independent auditors, which requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast or shares voting on the matter. Abstentions and broker non-votes, however, will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal relating to the reverse stock split because approval of each of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of all outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock.

To vote by mail, sign, date and complete the enclosed proxy card and return it in the enclosed envelope. No postage is necessary if the proxy card is mailed in the United States. If you hold your shares through a bank, broker or other nominee, they will give you separate instructions for voting your shares.

Revocability of Proxy and Voting of Shares

Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised. The proxy may be revoked by filing with the Secretary of the Company, at the principal executive offices of the Company, 100 Brickstone Square, Andover, Massachusetts 01810, an instrument of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. The proxy may also be revoked by attending the Meeting and voting in person. If not revoked, the proxy will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the stockholder's instructions indicated on the proxy card. If no instructions are indicated, the proxy will be voted:

- FOR the election of the two Class III Director nominees named herein;
- FOR the approval of the proposal to authorize the Board of Directors, in its discretion, should it deem it to be appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, to amend the Certificate of Incorporation to effect a reverse stock split of the Company's Common Stock by a ratio of between 1-for-2 and 1-for-25, inclusive, without further approval or authorization of the Company's stockholders;
- FOR the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the current fiscal year; and
- In accordance with the judgment of the proxy holders as to any other matter that may be properly brought before the Meeting or any adjournments thereof.

PROPOSAL 2

TO AUTHORIZE THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, IN ITS DISCRETION, SHOULD IT DEEM IT TO BE APPROPRIATE AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COMPANY AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS, TO AMEND THE COMPANY'S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO EFFECT A REVERSE STOCK SPLIT OF THE COMPANY'S ISSUED AND OUTSTANDING SHARES OF COMMON STOCK BY A RATIO OF BETWEEN 1-FOR-2 AND 1-FOR-25, INCLUSIVE, WITHOUT FURTHER APPROVAL OR AUTHORIZATION OF THE COMPANY'S STOCKHOLDERS

General

The Company may consider effecting a reverse stock split on or prior to the date of the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders following the Meeting if such action is deemed appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. Such action may be taken, among other reasons, in order to preserve the listing of the Company's Common Stock on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, to meet listing requirements for other trading markets or exchanges, or for reasons related to capital markets generally, including attracting institutional investors. Given the time and expense associated with convening a special meeting of stockholders, which would be required to consider this issue at a later time, the Board of Directors has determined that it is most efficient and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders to seek approval and authorization of a reverse stock split at this Meeting. If this proposal is approved by the Company's stockholders at the Meeting or at an adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors would then have the discretion to implement a reverse stock split, within the parameters of the authority granted at this Meeting, at any time on or prior to the date of the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders following the Meeting, without seeking further approval or authorization of the Company's stockholders.

The Company's stockholders are being asked to approve the reverse stock split proposal at the ratio of between 1-for-2 and 1-for-25, inclusive. The Board of Directors has adopted a resolution, (i) declaring the advisability of a reverse stock split by a ratio of between 1-for-2 and 1-for-25, inclusive, subject to stockholder approval, (ii) in connection therewith, amending the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to effect such a reverse stock split, subject to stockholder approval, and (iii) authorizing any other action it deems necessary to effect such a reverse stock split, without further approval or authorization of the Company's stockholders, at any time on or prior to the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders following the Meeting. The Board of Directors may subsequently effect, in its discretion, a reverse stock split within the range approved by the stockholders based on its determination that such reverse stock split is in the best interests of stockholders.

If approved by the Company's stockholders, and the Board of Directors determines that a reverse stock split is appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, the proposed reverse stock split could become effective on any date selected by the Board of Directors on or prior to the date of the date of the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders following the Meeting. The Board of Directors may only effect one of the proposed reverse stock splits within the range approved. Moreover, the Board of Directors reserves the right, even after stockholder approval, to forego effecting a reverse stock split if such action is determined not to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. If the reverse stock split approved by the stockholders is subsequently not implemented by the Board of Directors and effected by the next annual meeting of stockholders following the Meeting, the proposal will be deemed abandoned, without any further effect. In such case, the Board of Directors may again seek stockholder approval at a future date for a reverse stock split if it deems a reverse stock split to be advisable at that time.

Contingent on approval of this proposal by the requisite vote of the Company's stockholders and thereafter implementation by the Board of Directors, upon filing of an amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the reverse stock split would be effective.

Reasons for the Proposed Reverse Split

The primary reason for implementing a reverse split would be to attempt to increase the per share market price of the Common Stock. In July 2002, the Company was notified by the Nasdaq Stock Market that, based upon its review of price data for the Company's Common Stock, the closing bid price for the Company's Common Stock was less than $1.00 per share during the relevant review period, which was a requirement for continued inclusion of the Company's securities on the Nasdaq National Market. On November 1, 2002, the listing of the Company's Common Stock transferred from the Nasdaq National Market to the Nasdaq SmallCap Market. The Nasdaq SmallCap Market, like the Nasdaq National Market, requires a minimum bid price per share of $1.00 for continued listing. In connection with the transfer to the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, the Company is required to demonstrate compliance with the minimum price requirement by December 31, 2002. The Company believes that at such time, if the minimum price requirement is not met, the Nasdaq staff may determine that a 180-day grace period to June 30, 2003 is in order, since such grace periods are granted if other initial listing requirements are met (for example, one initial listing requirement is that the Company have a market capitalization of at least $50 million, which it currently has). The Board of Directors anticipates that a reverse split, if implemented, would have the effect of increasing, proportionately, the trading prices of the Company's shares, which could result in a share price high enough to satisfy this Nasdaq SmallCap Market minimum price requirement. There can be no assurance, however, that the Company would be able to maintain the listing of the Company's Common Stock on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market even if a reverse split results in a bid price for the Company's Common Stock that exceeds $1.00 per share.

The Board of Directors believes that the current low price of the Company's Common Stock, which it believes is due in part to the overall weakness in the economy in general and in the market for Nasdaq-listed companies in particular, has had a negative effect on the marketability of the issued and outstanding shares, the amount and percentage of transaction costs paid by individual stockholders and the potential ability of the Company to raise capital by issuing additional shares of its Common Stock. The Board believes there are several reasons for these effects. First, certain institutional investors have internal policies preventing the purchase of low-priced stocks. Moreover, a variety of policies and practices of broker-dealers discourage individual brokers within those firms from dealing in low-priced stocks. Second, because the brokers' commissions on low-priced stocks generally represent a higher percentage of the stock price than commissions on higher-priced stocks, the current share price of the Company's Common Stock can result in individual stockholders paying transaction costs (commissions, markups or markdowns) which are a higher percentage of their total share value than would be the case if the Company's share price were substantially higher. This factor is also believed to limit the willingness of institutions to purchase the Company's Common Stock.

The Board of Directors anticipates that a reverse split would result in a bid price for the Company's Common Stock in excess of $1.00 per share. The Board also believes that the decrease in the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock outstanding as a consequence of a reverse split, and the anticipated related increase in the price of the Company's Common Stock, could encourage interest in the Company's Common Stock and possibly promote greater liquidity for the Company's stockholders, although such liquidity could be adversely affected by the reduced number of shares outstanding after a reverse split. In addition, although any increase in the market price of the Company's Common Stock resulting from a reverse split may be proportionately less than the decrease in the number of outstanding shares, a reverse split could result in a market price for the shares that would be high enough to overcome the reluctance, policies and practices of brokers and investors referred to above and to diminish the adverse impact of trading commissions on the market for the shares.

There can be no assurances, however, that if a reverse split were implemented, the foregoing events would occur, or that the market price of the Company's Common Stock immediately after such a reverse split would be maintained for any period of time. Moreover, there can be no assurance that the market price of the Company's Common Stock after a reverse split would adjust to reflect the conversion ratio (e.g., if the market price is $0.50 before a reverse split and the ratio is one (1) new share for every ten (10) shares outstanding there can be no assurance that the market price for such share immediately after the reverse split would be $5.00 (10 x $0.50)); or that the market price following a reverse split would either exceed or remain in excess of the then current market price.

Principal Effects of the Proposed Reverse Split

If the proposed reverse stock split is approved at the Meeting and the Board of Directors determines that a reverse stock split is appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders and elects to effect a reverse stock split, each outstanding share of the Company's Common Stock would immediately and automatically be changed, as of the effective date of the reverse split, into the proportionate number of shares of the Company's Common Stock and the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock subject to outstanding options and warrants issued by the Company would be reduced proportionately and the respective exercise prices would be increased proportionately.

No fractional shares of the Company's Common Stock would be issued by the Company in connection with a reverse split. Holders of the Company's Common Stock who would otherwise receive a fractional share of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to the reverse split would receive cash in lieu of the fractional share as explained more fully below.

The par value of the Company's Common Stock would remain unchanged at $.01 per share, and the number of authorized shares of the Company's Common Stock would remain unchanged.

If the reverse split is approved at the Meeting and effected by the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors would fix a record date for the determination of shares subject to the reverse split. As of November 19, 2002, the record date for the Meeting, there were [] shares of the Company's Common Stock issued and outstanding. If additional shares of the Company's Common Stock are issued or redeemed prior to the effective date of the reverse split, the actual number of shares issued and outstanding before and after the reverse split would increase or decrease accordingly.

Because the reverse split would apply to all issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock and outstanding rights to purchase the Company's Common Stock or to convert other securities into the Company's Common Stock, the proposed reverse split would not alter the relative rights and preferences of existing stockholders. The reverse split would, however, effectively increase the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock available for future issuances by the Board of Directors.

If the proposed reverse split is approved at the Meeting and effected by the Board of Directors, some stockholders may consequently own less than one hundred shares of the Company's Common Stock. A purchase or sale of less than one hundred shares (an "odd lot" transaction) may result in incrementally higher trading costs through certain brokers, particularly "full service" brokers. Therefore, those stockholders who own less than one hundred shares following implementation of a reverse split may be required to pay higher transaction costs should they subsequently determine to sell their shares of Common Stock.

If a reverse split is approved by the requisite vote of the stockholders, stockholders have no right under Delaware law or the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws to dissent from a reverse stock split or to dissent from the payment of cash in lieu of issuing fractional shares.

Cash Payment in Lieu of Fractional Shares

If the proposed reverse split is approved at the Meeting and effected by the Board of Directors, in lieu of any fractional shares to which a holder of the Company's Common Stock would otherwise be entitled as a result of such reverse split, the Company would pay cash equal to the fair value of the Company's Common Stock as determined by the Board of Directors at the effective time of the reverse split.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following description of the material federal income tax consequences of a reverse split is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), applicable Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial authority and current administrative rulings and practices as in effect on the date of this Proxy Statement. Changes to the laws could alter the tax consequences described below, possibly with retroactive effect. The Company has not sought and will not seek an opinion of counsel or a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding the federal income tax consequences of a reverse split. This discussion is for general information only and does not discuss the tax consequences which may apply to special classes of taxpayers (e.g., non-resident aliens, broker/dealers or insurance companies). The state and local tax consequences of a reverse split may vary significantly as to each stockholder, depending upon the jurisdiction in which such stockholder resides. Stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular consequences to them.

In general, the federal income tax consequences of a reverse split will vary among stockholders depending upon whether they receive cash for fractional shares or solely a reduced number of shares of the Company's Common Stock in exchange for their old shares of the Company's Common Stock. The Company believes that because a reverse split would not be part of a plan to increase periodically a stockholder's proportionate interest in the Company's assets or earnings and profits, the reverse split would likely have the following federal income tax effects:

A stockholder who receives solely a reduced number of shares of the Company's Common Stock would not recognize gain or loss. In the aggregate, such a stockholder's basis in the reduced number of shares of the Company's Common Stock would equal the stockholder's basis in its old shares of the Company's Common Stock.

A stockholder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share as a result of the reverse split would generally be treated as having received the payment as a distribution in redemption of the fractional share, as provided in Section 302(a) of the Code, which distribution would be taxed as either a distribution under Section 301 of the Code or an exchange to such stockholder, depending on that stockholder's particular facts and circumstances. Generally, a stockholder receiving such a payment should recognize gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received and the stockholder's basis in the fractional share. In the aggregate, such a stockholder's basis in the reduced number of shares of the Company's Common Stock will equal the stockholder's basis in its old shares of the Company's Common Stock decreased by the basis allocated to the fractional share for which such stockholder is entitled to receive cash.

The Company would not recognize any gain or loss as a result of a reverse split.

Board Discretion to Implement the Proposed Reverse Stock Split

If the proposed reverse split is approved at the Meeting, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, should it deem it to be appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, at any time prior to the date of the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders following the Meeting, authorize the reverse split and file the amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The form of amendment is attached as Appendix 1 to this Proxy Statement and would be tailored to the specific reverse split ratio to be effected. The determination by the Board of Directors to implement a reverse split of the Company's Common Stock will be based on a number of factors, including continuing to preserve the listing of the Company's Common Stock on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, meeting listing requirements for other trading markets or exchanges, or for other reasons related to the Company's capital markets needs generally, including attracting institutional investors. If the Board of Directors determines to implement the reverse split of the Company's Common Stock, the ratio chosen by the Board of Directors will depend on a number of factors, including market conditions, existing and expected trading prices for the Company's Common Stock and the likely effect of business developments on the market price for the Company's Common Stock. Notwithstanding approval of the reverse split at the Meeting, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, determine not to implement the reverse split.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the proposal to authorize the Board of Directors, in its discretion, should it deem it to be appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, to effect the reverse stock split of the Company's Common Stock by a ratio of between 1-for-2 and 1-for-25, inclusive, at any time on or prior to the date of the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders following the Meeting, without further approval or authorization of the Company's stockholders.

PROPOSAL 3

RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Board of Directors has appointed KPMG LLP, independent auditors, to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending July 31, 2003, and recommends that the stockholders vote for ratification of such appointment. If the stockholders do not ratify the selection of KPMG as the Company's independent auditors, the selection of such auditors will be reconsidered by the Board of Directors. A representative of KPMG, which served as the Company's auditors in fiscal 2002, is expected to be present at the Meeting to be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders and to make a statement if he or she desires to do so.

The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote FOR the ratification of KPMG LLP to serve as the Company's independent auditors for the current fiscal year.

Human Resources and Compensation Committee Report

The Human Resources and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") is composed of three directors who are not employees of the Company. The Compensation Committee regularly reviews and approves compensation and benefit programs of the Company and also reviews and determines the actual compensation of the Company's executive officers, as well as all stock option grants, performance-based stock options and cash incentive awards to all key employees. The Compensation Committee reviews and administers the Company's 2002 Non-Officer Employee Stock Incentive Plan, 2000 Stock Incentive Plan, 1986 Stock Option Plan and Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The Compensation Committee reviews executive compensation reports prepared by independent organizations in order to evaluate the appropriateness of its executive compensation program.

The Compensation Committee uses its base salary and incentive bonus program for the Company's executive officers in order to enhance short-term profitability and stockholder value and uses stock options and performance-based stock options to enhance long-term growth in profitability, return on equity and stockholder value. In order to meet these objectives, the Compensation Committee sets base salaries and target incentive bonus awards for the Company's executive officers for each fiscal year based on percentage of the ranges of base salaries and bonuses among competitive peer groups.

The Compensation Committee reviews the Company's annual performance plan for the ensuing fiscal year and sets specific incentive target bonus awards which are directly linked to the short-term financial performance of the Company as a whole. For fiscal 2002, the Compensation Committee adopted a Bonus Plan for CMGI Corporate and a Bonus Plan for Operating Companies. Each of these plans covers executive officers and key employees, and is funded based on the Company's business performance, with minimum threshold levels established. Bonus payments under the plans may range from 0-150% of an individual's target bonus based on achievement of business and individual performance. No bonus payments were made to any executive officers of the Company under the Bonus Plan for CMGI Corporate, as the Company did not achieve the threshold business performance objectives for the funding of the plan. Based on NaviSite's business performance and the achievement of individual goals and objectives, Ms. Gilligan received a bonus under the Bonus Plan for Operating Companies of $72,025. Other than the bonus payment to Ms. Gilligan, no bonus payments were made to any executive officers of the Company under the Bonus Plan for Operating Companies, as the relevant operating companies did not achieve the threshold business performance objectives for the funding of the plan as applicable to such executive officers.

For fiscal 2003, the Compensation Committee has adopted a Bonus Plan for CMGI Corporate and a Bonus Plan for Operating Companies. Each of these plans covers executive officers and key employees, and is funded based on the Company's business performance, with minimum threshold levels established. Bonus payments under the plans may range from 0-200% of an individual's target bonus based on achievement of business and individual performance.

In addition, the Compensation Committee has discretionary authority to award bonuses for individual achievements. Based on individual performance during fiscal 2002, the following discretionary bonuses were awarded to executive officers of the Company: Mr. Oberdorf—$45,000; Mr. Gray—$32,500; and Mr. Barnett—$25,000.

In addition to salaries and incentive bonuses, the Compensation Committee also grants stock options to executive officers and other key employees of the Company and its subsidiaries in order to focus the efforts of these employees on the long-term enhancement of profitability and stockholder value.

With respect to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, the Compensation Committee utilizes a compensation program composed of base salary, incentive bonuses based on business and financial performance of the Company and individual performance during the fiscal year, and stock option grants.

George A. McMillan has served as Chief Executive Officer of the Company since March 2002. Previously, Mr. McMillan served as Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Company from July 2001 to March 2002. In June 2001, the Company and Mr. McMillan entered into an agreement providing for a base salary of $400,000, a sign-on bonus of $300,000 and a guaranteed bonus for fiscal 2002 of $300,000. In addition, Mr. McMillan received an option to purchase 2,000,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company. In February 2002, the Company and Mr. McMillan entered into an agreement whereby Mr. McMillan would become the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Pursuant to such agreement, Mr. McMillan's annual salary was raised to $500,000 and he became eligible to receive a target annualized bonus for fiscal 2002 of $450,000 based on successful satisfaction of fiscal 2002 business objectives, of which $300,000 was guaranteed as described above. In addition, he became eligible to receive potential additional bonus amounts up to $450,000 based on business achievements above and beyond such targets. Also pursuant to the agreement, and in order to provide a significant incentive to enhance long-term stockholder value, Mr. McMillan received an option to purchase 2,750,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company. The vesting of the option is based upon a combination of the Company reaching certain defined financial performance objectives and the passage of time. In determining the compensation of Mr. McMillan as Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee reviewed comparable compensation data from the Company's competitive peer groups, as well as Mr. McMillan's effectiveness and leadership during his first year with the Company in a challenging economic environment. Based on the Company's business performance and the achievement of individual goals and objectives during fiscal 2002, the Compensation Committee awarded Mr. McMillan a bonus of $345,000, inclusive of the $300,000 guaranteed amount. See "Employment Agreements and Severance and Change of Control Arrangements."

David S. Wetherell served as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company until March 2002. In November 1993, the Company entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Wetherell and in connection therewith issued to him a performance-based stock option for the purchase of 4,800,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement and in recognition of the Company's current state of unprofitability, Mr. Wetherell agreed to fix his salary for fiscal 2002 at $1 (plus such amounts as are determined by the Board of Directors as necessary to cover health insurance and similar deductions). See "Employment Agreements and Severance and Change of Control Arrangements." Based on the Company's business performance during fiscal 2002, no bonus was paid to Mr. Wetherell for fiscal 2002. In February 2002, in recognition of the importance of Mr. Wetherell's continued service and involvement with the Company, the Compensation Committee awarded Mr. Wetherell an option to purchase 2,500,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company. For a discussion of the Company's @Ventures funds, and the interests of Mr. Wetherell therein, see "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions."

Section 162(m) of the Code generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for certain compensation in excess of $1 million paid to the company's chief executive officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers. Certain compensation, including qualified performance-based compensation, will not be subject to the deduction limit if certain requirements are met. In general, the Company structures and administers its stock option plans in a manner intended to comply with the performance-based exception to Section 162(m). Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that compensation attributable to awards granted under the Company's stock option plans will be treated as qualified performance-based compensation under Section 162(m). In addition, the Compensation Committee reviews the potential effect of Section 162(m) periodically and uses its judgment to authorize compensation payments that may be subject to the limit when the Compensation Committee believes such payments are appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

The Compensation Committee believes that the foregoing combination of base salaries, incentive bonuses, stock options and performance-based stock options have helped develop a senior management group dedicated to achieving significant improvement in both the short-term and long-term financial performance of the Company.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements for fiscal 2002 with the Company's management. The Audit Committee has discussed with KPMG, the Company's independent auditors, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from KPMG required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with KPMG its independence. The Audit Committee also considered whether KPMG's provision of non-audit services, including financial information systems design and implementation services, to the Company is compatible with maintaining KPMG's independence. Based on the review and discussions described above, among other things, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2002.

In connection with the Company's acquisition of AltaVista in August 1999, the Company issued promissory notes to Compaq Computer Corporation (now Hewlett-Packard Company ("H-P")) in the aggregate principal amount of $220 million (the "Notes"). On August 18, 2001, the Company issued an aggregate of 5,397,196 shares of Common Stock to H-P in satisfaction of interest due and payable on the Notes. In connection with the AltaVista acquisition, the Company agreed that for so long as H-P owns at least 5% of the issued and outstanding stock of the Company, H-P shall have the right to designate a member of the Board of Directors of the Company.

In connection with the AltaVista acquisition, the Company and H-P entered into a strategic business agreement pursuant to which each party agreed to promote and purchase, in some cases, the products or services of the other. These arrangements include (i) the payment of fees by the Company to H-P for certain Internet traffic directed by H-P to designated web sites of the Company or its subsidiaries, (ii) an agreement by the Company to spend a specified portion of its information technology budget on products or services offered by H-P that meet the Company's requirements, (iii) an agreement between the Company and H-P to provide one another its services and/or products on terms equal to its most favorable then-offered pricing terms, and (iv) an agreement to create a joint marketing fund for marketing activities which promote the parties' strategic relationship, products and services. During fiscal 2002, the Company made payments to H-P totaling approximately $9.2 million pursuant to the strategic business agreement. Also during fiscal 2002, the Company paid approximately $1.4 million to H-P to terminate the directed traffic arrangement described above.

AltaVista issued a convertible demand note to H-P as payment for all debt incurred by AltaVista to H-P. Under the note, debt accrued interest at a rate of 7% per year, compounded monthly until H-P converted all principal and interest on November 8, 2001 into 215,250 shares of common stock of AltaVista. As of October 31, 2002, H-P owned 98,694.8 shares of Series A convertible preferred stock, convertible into 1,283,032 shares of AltaVista common stock. H-P has the right to provide AltaVista with additional convertible debt financing in the future based on the amount of funding provided by the Company and the percentage ownership of AltaVista by the Company and H-P at the end of each quarter. Any future funding provided by H-P is convertible into shares of Series A convertible preferred stock of AltaVista.

In August 1999, AltaVista and H-P entered into a Customer Services Software Product Services Agreement. H-P agreed to supply level 1 software support services to purchasers of AltaVista's software, and H-P agreed to pay AltaVista a portion of the fees received for subscription services plus $50,000 per quarter for AltaVista's provision of level 2 and 3 support. During fiscal 2002, AltaVista received approximately $151,000 from H-P under the agreement.

HPFS and the Company also loaned NaviSite $20 million and $10 million, respectively, in cash. In exchange for the cash infusion, NaviSite issued notes payable in the face amounts of $20 million and $10 million to HPFS and the Company, respectively, making the total notes payable issued by NaviSite to HPFS and the Company, approximately $55 million and $10 million, respectively. The notes require payment of interest only, at 12% per annum, for the first three years from the date of issuance and then repayment of interest and principal, on a straight-line basis, over the next three years until maturity on the sixth anniversary of the date of issuance. At NaviSite's option, it may make interest payments (i) 100% in shares of NaviSite common stock, in the case of amounts owed to the Company, and (ii) approximately 16.67% in shares of NaviSite common stock through December 2003, in the case of amounts owed to HPFS. The principal balance may be convertible into shares of NaviSite common stock at the option of the holders at any time prior to or at maturity at a rate of $0.26 per share. The Company also converted its $80 million in aggregate principal amount of notes receivable from NaviSite, plus the interest accrued thereon, into approximately 14.8 million shares of the Company's Common Stock. The Company also converted approximately $16.2 million in other amounts receivable from NaviSite into approximately 9.9 million shares of NaviSite common stock. In consideration thereof, the Company received, among other things, 131,579 shares of ClearBlue common stock. Also on September 11, 2002, HPFS sold all of its equity and debt ownership interests in NaviSite to ClearBlue. Under the terms of a Note and Stock Purchase Agreement, HPFS sold to ClearBlue (i) approximately 3.2 million shares of NaviSite common stock held by HPFS, and (ii) the 12% Convertible Note issued to HPFS by NaviSite, representing $55 million aggregate principal amount plus all accrued interest thereon. On July 11, 2002, the Company, through its subsidiary SL Supply Chain Services International Corp. ("SL Supply Chain"), acquired substantially all of the worldwide assets and operations of Software Logistics Corporation, a California corporation doing business as iLogistix. Employment Agreements and Severance and Change of Control Arrangements

The Company is a party to an Employment Agreement, dated as of November 9, 1993, as amended, with David S. Wetherell, providing for the employment of Mr. Wetherell by the Company. The agreement provides for a term of employment through July 31, 2003 and a minimum annual base salary that is currently $1 (plus such amounts as are determined by the Board of Directors as necessary to cover health insurance and similar deductions). The agreement also provides for annual incentive awards in amounts to be determined by the Compensation Committee, participation in all benefits made available to senior executives generally and salary continuation for the shorter of two years or the remaining term of the agreement in the event (i) Mr. Wetherell terminates his employment following a Change of Control of the Company (as defined), or (ii) Mr. Wetherell's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause (as defined); except that the two-year limit shall not apply in either event if the Company has achieved certain specified performance goals. The minimum annual base salary may be increased from time to time at the discretion of the Compensation Committee; provided that it may not thereafter be reduced without Mr. Wetherell's consent except as part of a general reduction in executive salaries. The agreement contains non-competition covenants in favor of the Company through July 31, 2005.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, on November 9, 1993, Mr. Wetherell was also granted a non-qualified stock option under the Company's 1986 Stock Option Plan to purchase 4,800,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.165 per share. The option becomes exercisable in ten annual installments of 480,000 shares each, beginning on November 1, 1994, and ending on November 1, 2003, but only if and to the extent that the Company meets certain performance goals as determined by the Compensation Committee. In any event, the option becomes exercisable (to the extent not previously exercisable) as to the first 2,400,000 shares on November 1, 1998, and as to the second 2,400,000 shares on November 1, 2003. In the event Mr. Wetherell terminates his employment following a Change of Control of the Company, a percentage of all remaining installments of his stock option would become exercisable, equal to the percentage of installments that had previously become exercisable. In the event Mr. Wetherell's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause, a percentage of up to three remaining installments of his stock option would become exercisable, equal to the percentage of installments that had previously become exercisable.

Any compensation payable under the employment agreement to Mr. Wetherell contingent on a Change of Control of the Company which qualifies as a "parachute payment" under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall be limited to the maximum amount that may be paid to him without any part of such compensation being deemed an excess parachute payment under the Code.

The Limited Liability Company Agreement of CMG@Ventures I, LLC provides that, upon a change of control (as defined), each profit member, including Mr. Wetherell, may elect, within two months of the date of the change of control, to have CMG@Ventures I, LLC repurchase all, and not less than all, of the interest in CMG@Ventures I, LLC held by such profit member at the fair market value of such interest as determined by an independent appraisal pursuant to a procedure set forth in the Limited Liability Company Agreement. A change of control is defined to mean, among other things, a change of control of the Company (i) which has not been approved by a majority of all of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, or (ii) which has been approved by a majority of all the members of the Board of Directors of the Company but which has not been approved by a majority in interest of the profit members of CMG@Ventures I, LLC and which is likely by its terms to have a material adverse effect upon the business and prospects of CMG@Ventures I, LLC and which change of control in either event is of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Items 6(e) or 14(i), (iv) or (v) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), provided that, in the case of a change of control reportable under Item 6(e), such change of control involves the acquisition by any "person" (as such term is used in Sections 13(d)(3) and 14(d)(2) of the Exchange Act, but expressly excluding Mr. Wetherell) of beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of securities or interests in the Company which represent more than 30% of the combined voting power of the Company's outstanding securities.

The Operating Agreement of CMG@Ventures II, LLC provides that, upon a change of control (as defined), each managing member, including Mr. Wetherell, may elect, within two months of the date of the change of control, to have CMG@Ventures II, LLC repurchase all, and not less than all, of the interest in CMG@Ventures II, LLC held by such managing member at the fair market value of such interest as determined by an independent appraisal pursuant to a procedure set forth in the Operating Agreement. A change of control is defined to mean, among other things, a change of control of the Company (i) which has not been approved by a majority of all of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, or (ii) which has been approved by a majority of all the members of the Board of Directors of the Company but which has not been approved by a majority in interest of the members of CMG@Ventures II, LLC and which is likely by its terms to have a material adverse effect upon the business and prospects of CMG@Ventures II, LLC and which change of control in either event is of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Items 6(e) or 14(i), (iv) or (v) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Exchange Act, provided that, in the case of a change of control reportable under Item 6(e), such change of control involves the acquisition by any "person" (as such term is used in Sections 13(d)(3) and 14(d)(2) of the Exchange Act, but expressly excluding Mr. Wetherell) of beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of securities or interests in the Company which represent more than 30% of the combined voting power of the Company's outstanding securities.

Mr. McMillan and the Company entered into an agreement, dated as of June 11, 2001, which provided for the employment of Mr. McMillan as Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Company. The agreement provided for an annual base salary of $400,000, a sign-on bonus of $300,000 and a guaranteed fiscal 2002 bonus of $300,000. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. McMillan was granted an option to purchase 2,000,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company at an exercise price of $2.52 per share. On February 18, 2002, Mr. McMillan and the Company entered into an agreement providing for the employment of Mr. McMillan as Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Pursuant to such agreement, Mr. McMillan's annual salary was raised to $500,000 and he became eligible to receive a target annualized bonus for fiscal 2002 of $450,000 based on successful satisfaction of fiscal 2002 business objectives, of which $300,000 was guaranteed as described above. In addition, he became eligible to receive potential additional bonus amounts up to $450,000 based on business achievements above and beyond such targets. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. McMillan was granted an option to purchase 2,750,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company at an exercise price of $1.42 per share. The vesting of the option is based upon a combination of the Company reaching certain defined financial performance objectives and the passage of time. Mr. McMillan and the Company have also entered into an agreement containing non-competition covenants in favor of the Company during Mr. McMillan's employment and for 12 months thereafter.

Mr. McMillan and the Company are parties to an Amended and Restated Executive Severance Agreement, dated as of March 1, 2002, that provides in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company for a reason other than for Cause (as defined) or by Mr. McMillan for Good Reason (as defined), then the Company shall pay Mr. McMillan a one-time severance payment equal to 12 months of his then-current annual base salary plus his target bonus as in effect on his last day of employment. In the event that any such termination of employment occurs prior to July 9, 2003, 50% of the then-unvested options to purchase shares of common stock of the Company pursuant to options granted to Mr. McMillan on July 9, 2001 shall immediately become exercisable in full and shall be deemed fully vested. Additionally, and not in limitation of the previous sentence, (A) in the event that any such termination of employment occurs prior to February 18, 2004, 25% of the then-unvested options to purchase shares of common stock of the Company pursuant to options granted to Mr. McMillan on February 18, 2002 ("CEO Options") shall immediately become exercisable in full and shall be deemed fully vested, and (B) in the event that any such termination of employment occurs on or after February 18, 2004, 50% of the then-unvested CEO Options shall immediately become exercisable in full and shall be deemed fully vested. In addition, the agreement provides that in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company for a reason other than for Cause or by Mr. McMillan for Good Reason within one year following a Change of Control of the Company (as defined), then (i) the Company shall pay Mr. McMillan a one-time severance payment equal to 24 months of his then-current annual base salary plus target bonus as in effect on his last day of employment, and (ii) each outstanding option to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Company then held by Mr. McMillan shall immediately become exercisable in full and shall be deemed fully vested. In the event that any amounts payable to Mr. McMillan under the agreement are characterized as "excess parachute payments" under Section 280G of the Code, then Mr. McMillan may elect to reduce the severance payments or have a portion of the stock options not vest, provided that any such election shall not adversely affect the Company.

Mr. Oberdorf and the Company have entered into an agreement, dated as of March 1, 2002, providing for the employment of Mr. Oberdorf as Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Company. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $325,000 and eligibility for a fiscal 2002 bonus of 50% of his base salary. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Oberdorf was granted an option to purchase 750,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company at an exercise price of $1.55 per share. The vesting of the option is based upon the Company reaching certain defined financial performance objectives. Mr. Oberdorf and the Company have entered into an Executive Severance Agreement, dated as of March 4, 2002, that provides in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company for a reason other than for Cause (as defined), then the Company shall pay Mr. Oberdorf as severance pay his regular base salary as in effect on his last day of employment for one year following the termination date, payable in installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices, plus his target bonus as in effect on his last day of employment. In addition, the agreement provides that in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company for a reason other than for Cause or by Mr. Oberdorf for Good Reason (as defined) within one year following a Change of Control of the Company (as defined), then the Company shall pay Mr. Oberdorf a one-time severance payment equal to two times his then-current base salary plus two times his then-current target bonus. Mr. Oberdorf and the Company have also entered into an agreement containing non-competition covenants in favor of the Company during Mr. Oberdorf's employment and for 12 months thereafter.

Mr. Gray and the Company have entered into an Executive Retention Agreement, dated as of August 28, 2002, that provides in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company for a reason other than for Cause (as defined), then the Company shall pay Mr. Gray as severance pay his regular base salary as in effect on his last day of employment for one year following the termination date, payable in installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices, plus the bonus amount he would have been entitled to receive under the Company's bonus plan then in effect for the fiscal year in which the termination occurred, determined in accordance with the bonus plan, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of months that Mr. Gray was employed by the Company during the fiscal year in which his termination occurs and the denominator of which shall be twelve (12). In addition, the agreement provides that in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company for a reason other than for Cause or by Mr. Gray for Good Reason (as defined) within one year following a Change of Control of the Company (as defined), then the Company shall pay Mr. Gray a one-time severance payment equal to two times his then-current base salary plus his target bonus amount multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of months that Mr. Gray was employed by the Company during the fiscal year in which his termination occurs and the denominator of which shall be twelve (12). Additionally, on the last day of Mr. Gray's employment, the vesting of the stock option granted to Mr. Gray in March 2002 for 450,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock shall be accelerated in full. In the event of a termination of Mr. Gray's employment giving rise to a severance payment under the Executive Retention Agreement, Mr. Gray shall have the right to exercise any vested portion of this option within the 12-month time period following such termination, unless the option terminates sooner by the terms of the underlying option agreement. Mr. Gray and the Company have also entered into an agreement containing non-competition covenants in favor of the Company during Mr. Gray's employment and for 12 months thereafter.

Mr. Barnett and AltaVista have entered into an agreement, dated November 15, 2001, providing for the employment of Mr. Barnett as Chief Executive Officer of AltaVista. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $275,000 and eligibility under the Company's executive bonus plan for an annualized bonus of up to $75,000, $25,000 of which was paid upon execution of the agreement. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Barnett was granted an option to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $2.30 per share. The option vests as to 25% of the original number of shares underlying the option on the first anniversary of the date of grant and then 1/48 of the original number of shares underlying the option on each monthly anniversary date thereafter until fully vested on the fourth anniversary of the date of grant. In addition, Mr. Barnett was granted an option to purchase 1,000,000 shares of AltaVista's common stock (assuming 20,000,000 shares fully diluted). The AltaVista option vested as to 1/6 of the original number of shares underlying the option on the four-month anniversary of November 15, 2001 and shall vest as to an additional 1/36 of the original shares underlying the option on each monthly anniversary date thereafter until fully vested. The agreement also provides that in the event Mr. Barnett's employment is terminated by AltaVista for a reason other than for Cause (as defined) or by Mr. Barnett for Good Reason (as defined), then AltaVista shall pay

Mr. Barnett a severance payment equal to six months of his regular base salary. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, in the event of a Change of Control of AltaVista (as defined) and a subsequent termination of his employment by AltaVista for a reason other than Cause or by Mr. Barnett for Good Reason within six months thereafter, AltaVista shall pay to Mr. Barnett a severance payment equal to 12 months of this base salary. In addition, in the event of a Change of Control of AltaVista and a subsequent termination of his employment by AltaVista for a reason other than for Cause or by Mr. Barnett for Good Reason, 100% of his then-unvested AltaVista and CMGI stock options shall be deemed to be fully vested. Mr. Barnett and the Company have also entered into an agreement containing non-competition covenants in favor of the Company during Mr. Barnett's employment and for 12 months thereafter.

In June 2002, Mr. Barnett and AltaVista entered into an amendment to his employment agreement providing for a cash payment to Mr. Barnett equal to 2% of the total proceeds received by AltaVista or its stockholders in the event of a Change of Control of AltaVista. Mr. Barnett's right to receive this cash payment vests as to 1/36 per month of service with AltaVista, starting on September 1, 2001, until fully vested on September 1, 2004. The vesting of this right shall automatically accelerate in full if Mr. Barnett is employed by AltaVista at the time of any Change of Control, if his employment is terminated by AltaVista for any reason other than for Cause, or if he should terminate his employment for Good Reason. This right shall terminate on the fifth anniversary of the date Mr. Barnett was originally hired as an employee of AltaVista.

Mr. Andonian and the Company entered into an Executive Retention Agreement, dated as of July 9, 2001, that provides in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company for a reason other than for Cause (as defined), then the Company shall pay Mr. Andonian as severance pay (i) his regular base salary as in effect on his last day of employment for one year following the termination date, in installments, in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices, plus (ii) at the end of such year, the amount of his target bonus as in effect on his last day of employment. Pursuant to the agreement, the Company is currently paying to Mr. Andonian severance pay in bi-weekly installments of $11,538.46 each until August 28, 2003. In addition, on August 23, 2002, the Company paid to Mr. Andonian his target bonus of $200,000.

On September 11, 2002, the Company sold all of its equity and debt ownership interests in NaviSite to ClearBlue.
